Jennings Gets Scouts, Recruits and All His Old New York and Cincinnati Timers to Go Inte Contest to Avoid $5,000 Fine

DHILADELPHIA, May 18 .- For the first time since major league baseball has been played on its present high plane, an entire team rebelled against league authority and went on a strike

Detroit players made good their threat not to play if the suspension of Tyrus Cobb wasn't lifted, so today patrons of Shibe park hal the novelty of seeing the champions of the world meet a team of raw amateurs in a game counted in the American league standing.

The Detroit players' ultimatum, telegraphed to President Johnson yesterday, informed that official that unless Cobb was permitted to play they would refuse to take part in the game.

The regular Tiger players, including Cobb, came to Shibe park in uniform ready to play in case the suspension was lifted, but when they heard no word from President Johnson they left the field after a short practice and went to their dressing room and turned over their uniforms to a team of amateurs that Manager Jennings of Detroit had rounded up in case their services were needed. This was done to prevent Detroit from being fined $5000.

This team was re-enforced by two of the Detroit scouts, Jim Ma-Guire and Joe Sugden, both stars of yesteryear. McGuire was behind the bat and Sugden covered first base. The result of the doleful affair was 24 to 2 in favor of the Mackmen. They could have made the score 66 or 103 if they had wanted to.

Mackmen Play with "Has-Beens."

Cleveland Beats New York.

By International News Service. NEW YORK, May 18.—The Yanks and Naps fought out a cannonading duel here today and the Naps won by a score of 10 to 7. The two clubs amassed thirty hits for forty-six bases. The Yanks first mauled the padding out of Willie Mitchell, and the Naps followed by bumping Jack Quinn off the mound, slithough Quinn drew poor support. Sliding to second in the fourth, Henry Wolter snapped his bad ankle again and was carried from the field. He will probably be out for two or three weeks. Jack Martin's batting and brilliant playing was the star Yankee feature. NEW YORK, May 18 .- The Yanks an

Fight a Hard Battle but Reds Win 4 to 3

INCINNATI, May 18 .- Nearly twenty thousand people saw the start of the fight for first place today, in which the Reds drew first blood by beating the champion Giants four to three in a very close and bitter struggle. Benton was wild and was hit hard, but hig support was very fast and pulled him out of several tight holes. All three of the Giant tallies were due to passes. Mathewson was hit safely in the plaches and his support was not high-class. Bates the Reds' centerfielder, sprained his ankle sliding to the plate in the eighth inning, when he scored the winning run, and will be out of the game for a couple of weeks.

The occasion was the formal dedication of the new bail park as Redland field and a large number of noted baseball men were present, including President Lynch of the National league; Ban Johnson of the American league, Governor Tener of Pennsylvania and many others. of the fight for first place today,
